Semi-Formal Dress Code:

Semi-formal attire for ladies does not require a gown, though appropriately fitting spaghetti strap or strapless gowns may be worn. A semi-formal jacket, sweater, or wrap must be worn to the dance, over ladies’ dresses. Other acceptable semi-formal options for girls are: dress, skirt with a fancy blouse, or pant suit. Skirts/dresses must be knee length or longer, there is no need for floor length dresses. Skirt slits may not extend above the top of the kneecap. Necklines, including those of strapless dresses, must leave no more than a palm’s length bare of the chest. Backless ensembles, plunging necklines, exposed midriffs, and revealing styles are never acceptable semi-formal attire. Semi-formal attire requires dress heels or dressy flat shoes.

Semi-formal attire for gentlemen does not require a suit though one may be worn. Suitable attire for boys includes: tucked in collared shirt, suit coat and tie, slacks or khakis, dress shoes, and belt. Jeans, athletic shoes, white socks and baseball caps are never acceptable semi-formal attire.

Students that choose not to follow the dress code will not be permitted to enter the dance until they are dressed appropriately. John Paul the Great students are responsible for ensuring any approved guests comply with the dress code.
