

Calling all Middle School Science Enthusiasts (and their parents)!

Saint John Paul the Great Science Department is hosting a Super Science Saturday. On September 29, from 9:00-noon, you will have a chance to work real high school labs, meet the teachers in the department, hang out with some of our National Science Honors students and generally have a GREAT time.

Work labs in Biology, Chemistry and Physics in our beautiful, state-of-the-art science labs.

Registration begins at 8:30, with labs starting promptly at 9:00am. You will rotate through the different labs, finishing up at noon.

You must have a parent complete the permission form (attached) and bring with you to participate.

Cost of this amazing morning is $30 to cover supplies. Please go to <https://saintjohnpaul.mypaysimple.com/s/middle-school-event-registration> to pay online. (No payment or registration will be taken at the door!)

Parents, while your student is in the laboratory, you are welcome to visit with Mrs. Gildersleeve, Director of Enrollment Management, and ask questions about the application process, receive a formal tour of our building and meet other middle school parents. Coffee and light snacks will be available as well as access to our JP the Great fan merchandise.

Space is limited and registration will close on Wednesday, September 26 at 3:00pm.

Don't delay, register now!
